One witness, Leon keeps his horse in the Ed. Jones livery stable.

He got up on the morning of August 2d abous 5 o'clock. He went to breakfast with Finley.

Shortly after breakfast Mr. Bowen

asked him to help bim about some cattle. They went to the stable and got their horses and rode back to the hotel. Mr. Bowen got down from his horse and spoke to some one and they rode south to Mill avenue. Mr. Bunch overtook them and rode a short distance and turned off to the right. They rode to Mr. Lewis' place where they saw Mrs. Lewis and Mr. Bowen spoke to her in regard to some cattle which were out. They rode a short distance and met some cattle. The witness herded them for about fifteen minutes while Bowen rode east for more. They then drove the cattle into Lewi's pasture. While they were driving them, Raphel Lipez and Mr. Nichols came up and Lurez fixed the fence. Mrs. Bailey and Miss Commirgs passed them while standing at the pasture, driving a dun mare with mule colt following. Mr. Bowen told witness to go to town and tell Mr. Penn

The Tucson athletic association has started out under most favorable auspi c s and with the proper sot at before officers, are to be elected to the number for which the association was bought so descrable as a beautiful and wellsnaped form. The statues of ascient days, carve i in all the skill of Graeco Roman sculptors, conveys to the mind of man the splend'd physique of the gladiator of ancient days; with the wellrounded limbs and muscles displaying themselves in hoge voluptuousness as they stood out like chains of human strength. There is nothing so beautiful and pleasing to the sight as the well-shaped race herse in its leap for the tirst place around the race track and ikewise there is nothing so pleasing to the sight as the well-shaped form and accurate step and carriage of the nine-teenth century youth. To retain and enurs this desired form it is pecessary to take good and healthful exercise Many are they whose work and occupation keeps them close's confined, to offset this it is absolutely necessary to have hours of suitable recreation and a suitable class of exercise, such as would be obtained by foot racing, base ball and the general gymnastic exercises of swings, dumb bells, club-swinging and boxing, which latter is becoming and has been very popular inasmuch as it tends SEC. 9 Certificates of nomination to to teach one the art of many defense. be filed with the Secretary of the Ter.
